

ATTENTION STUDENTS

National Board Exams

The only items you will be allowed to bring into the testing area are your two forms of identification and a car key.

For exam security reasons, the NBCE does NOT allow any of the following items (but not limited to) into the testing area:

- Cellular phones or any electronic devices
- Remote keyless entry devices for vehicles
- Watches
- Food, drinks or water
- Writing instruments of any kind
- Reading or reference materials of any kind, i.e., notes, books, etc.
- Overcoats or jackets
- Hats
- No hooded sweatshirts or shirts with pockets*
- Backpacks, purses or other book bags of any kind
- Weapons
- Any other items that may be questioned by security personnel

* You may have a sweater or sweatshirt with out pockets available if the temperature is below your comfort level.

You will be asked to return any of these items to your vehicle. Lockers are not available during the exams. NBCE will not be held responsible for any items that are left with security during the administration. If you have any of the above items in your possession during an examination, you may be disqualified or permanently excluded from taking or continuing to take an examination, or from receiving scores.

You may also be subject to individual security screening procedures, including the use of metal detection devices. Refusal to submit to an individual security screening may result in denied entrance to or expulsion from the testing area.
