Chiropractic College

Texas Chiropractic College is committed to offering support resources to College Community members when sex discrimination and harassment, sexual violence, partner violence and stalking incidents occur. The college understands that it can be upsetting for individuals, especially when impacted by sex discrimination and harassment or when responding to sex discrimination and harassment allegations.

The College has listed below information that individuals impacted by or involved in sex discrimination and harassment matters may find helpful to support them. These support resources may provide Complainants and Respondents with the help that they need while navigating the myriad of concerns and questions that come up. The College will continue to address sex discrimination and harassment matters in an equitable manner while carefully taking steps to prevent and stop sex discrimination and harassment within the College community.
